

As a traveler it is hard to find certain information on the radio (local Am and FM). XM Radio offers continiousTraffic, weather and road condition with a directory for differant cities. I don't understand how the NAB can complain when they don't offer what XM does.